

Keep the Work You Love

Financial Education for Young Professionals

New Seminars for 2011

March 8: How Much Should I Borrow?

Learn how much more you can afford to borrow for graduate school and mortgages.

April 5: How Much Should I Save?

Discover your personal sustainable savings rate and learn effective savings strategies.

May 10: How Should I Invest?

Compare investments in 401(k)s, 403(b)s and IRAs to get the best bang for your buck.

Location: 1425 K Street, NW Suite 350

Time: 6:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Attend one seminar or all three (20% off).
Go to www.solidgroundfp.com and click
“register here” to reserve your seat today!

Gain the Financial Skills You Need to Stay in Government and the Nonprofit Sector

Sustainability. It's what you need to build a career and reach your professional goals. Without the right financial guidance money mistakes will hold you back and steal the future you envision. Keep The Work You Love teaches young professionals how to make the most of their debt management, saving and investing opportunities. Learn how to put your money to work so you can make smart financial decisions today and in the future.

About the Presenter: Rebecca Schreiber is a Certified Financial Planner™ and founder of Solid Ground, a financial planning firm. She has been quoted in the Wall Street Journal, Washington Post and New York Times. Unlike typical financial publications focused on Baby Boomers, Solid Ground tailors its education and advice to young professionals with time and choices on their side. This groundbreaking series will teach you the critical financial skills to stay on track and keep your dreams.

Build Your Future on Solid
Ground

